[Verse 1 - Tired]

I know you're tired,
But do you want the pain of discipline or the pain of regret?
The pain of progress or the pain of regress?
When no one watching, you gotta earn my respect.
All along it's just me and myself.

[Verse 2 - Overwhelmed]

I know you're overwhelmed,
But do you want the pain of focus or the pain of chaos?
The pain of structure or the cost when you're lost?
When no one watching, you gotta earn my respect.
All along it's just me and myself.

[Verse 3 - Feeling meaningless]

I know you feel meaningless,
But do you want the pain of building or the pain of regret?
The pain of purpose or a life you forget?
When no one watching, you gotta earn my respect.
All along it's just me and myself.

[Verse 4 - Anxious]

I know you're anxious,
But do you want the pain of courage or the pain of fear?
The pain of moving or staying stuck here?
When no one watching, you gotta earn my respect.
All along it's just me and myself.

[Verse 5 - Self-Doubt]

I know you feel not enough,
But do you want the pain of trying or the pain of regret?

The pain of growth or the pain of “not yet”?
When no one watching, you gotta earn my respect.
All along it's just me and myself.

[Verse 6 - Lonely]

I know you're lonely,
But do you want the pain of healing or the pain of escape?
The pain of truth or wearing the fake?
When no one watching, you gotta earn my respect.
All along it's just me and myself.

[Verse 7 - Comparison]

I know you feel behind,
But do you want the pain of patience or the pain of doubt?
The pain of trust or burning out?
When no one watching, you gotta earn my respect.
All along it's just me and myself.
